[Court of Claims. Congressional case No. 7065. S. R. Corn, administrator of the estate of John Smith, deceased, v. The United States.]

STATEMENT OF CASE.

The claim in the above-entitled case, for supplies or stores alleged to have been taken by or furnished to the military forces of the United States for their use during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, was transmitted to the court by the Committee on War Claims of the House of Representatives on the 26th day of February, 1889.

On a preliminary inquiry the court, on the 13th day of May, 1901, found that the person alleged to have furnished the supplies or stores, or from whom they were alleged to have been taken, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout said war.

The case was brought to a hearing on its merits on the 16th day of December, 1901. G. W. Z. Black, esq., appeared for claimant, and the Attorney-General, by George H. Walker, esq., his assistant and under his direction, appeared for the defense and protection of the interests of the United States.

The claimant in his petition makes the following allegations:

That he is a citizen of the United States, residing in Jackson County, State of Alabama, where his decedent resided during the late war of the rebellion; that at different times during said period the military forces of the United States, by proper authority, took from his decedent quartermaster stores and commissary supplies of the value of $975.25 and appropriated the same to the use of the United States Army, as follows:

600 bushels of corn, at $1 per bushel.....	$600.00
2,500 binds of fodder, at $2 per hundred.....	50.00
1,200 fence rails, at $2 per hundred .....	24.00
1 mule.....	150.00
400 pounds of pork, at 10 cents.....	40.00
75 pounds of bacon, at 15 cents.....	11.25
1 wagon .....	100.00
Total .....	975.25

Taken in the fall of 1863 by General Sherman's command.

The court, upon the evidence and after considering the briefs and arguments of counsel on both sides, makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT.

There was taken from the claimant's decedent, in Jackson County, State of Alabama, during the war of the rebellion, by the military forces of the United States, for the use of the Army, property of the kind and character above described, which was then and there reasonably worth the sum of four hundred and ten dollars ($410).

No payment appears to have been made therefor.

BY THE COURT.

Filed January 6, 1902.

A true copy.

Test this 25th day of January, A. D. 1902.
